

2015 Exhibition Schedule

Bayou City Chic: Progressive Streams of Modern Art in Houston January 31 - April 26, 2015

Featuring paintings of Houston-based artists from over the course of several decades, this exhibit showcases the development of modernism in Texas from the 1950s to 1980s. Several artists including Dorothy Hood, John Biggers, Ibsen Espada and Corpus Christi's Trudy Sween are in the Museum's permanent collection.

Bess, Forrest (1911-77)
Untitled, 1958
Oil on canvas
Museum of Fine Arts
Houston, Texas, USA Museum
purchase funded by Duke
Energy / Bridgeman Images

Greg Reuter
Seek the Heart, 1990
Ceramic, bronze and wood
Collection of AMST

Ward Island Twelve: TAMU-CC Art Faculty Biennial April 9 – September 13, 2015

This exhibition will feature the work of the full-time Art Department Faculty at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. Working in diverse media, each artist will bring to the exhibit his or her area of expertise. Including several works of art, this exhibition allows for both a collective and individual perspective. This presentation is the third biennial art faculty exhibition shown by the AMST.

Andy Warhol's Myths and Legends from the Cochran Collection May 9 – July 19, 2015

From the private collection of Wesley and Missy Cochran of La Grange, Georgia, this exhibit will feature 36 of Warhol's signature silkscreens and one drawing entitled Hello Wesley. The silkscreens were created starting in 1974 to just months before Warhol's death in 1987 and include complete sets of his Cowboys and Indians and Myths series as well celebrity images.

Andy Warhol
Superman, 1981
Screenprint
Collection of Wesley and Missy Cochran
© 2015 The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, Inc. / Artists Rights Society (ARS),
New York. Courtesy of Ronald Feldman Fine
Arts, New York

Dale Chihuly
American, b. 1941
Untitled (Basket Drawing), c. 1998
Acrylic on paper
Donated by Francine and Marc
Cohn, St. Louis, MO

Contemporary Masters: Works on Paper from the Collection of the Art Museum of South Texas July 15 – September 15, 2015

From the AMST Vault, this exhibition of 60 works feature's three pieces new to the collection and others that have not been exhibited before. Artists include Milton Avery, Luis Jimenez, Judy Chicago, Donald Judd, Sol LeWitt, Ed Ruscha and Andy Warhol.

Chicanitas: Small Paintings from the Cheech Marin Collection September 18, 2015 – January 3, 2016

This exhibition features 70 paintings by 29 artists from the renowned Chicano art collection of Cheech Marin, well known for his work in movies, television and improvisational comedy. The collection, featuring paintings that average 16 square inches and smaller, includes a variety of styles such as photo-realism, abstraction, portrait, and landscapes, which offer the viewer a window into the life of the artists.

Ricardo Ruiz
La Dottie, 2006
Acrylic on Wood

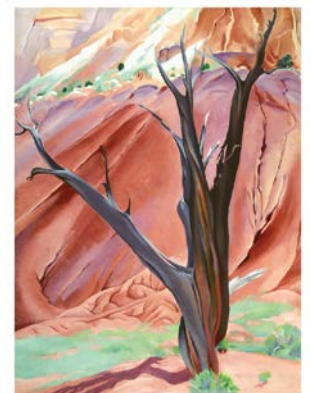

Joe Pena
Self Portrait, 2014
Oil on canvas

Studio Orbit: Pena and Ruiz September 18, 2015 – January 3, 2016

Corpus Christi artists, Joe Pena and Ricardo Ruiz, will present five to six recent works each in conjunction with the "Chicanitas" exhibition. Both artists are included in Cheech Marin's art collection.

Eloquent Objects: Georgia O'Keeffe and Still-Life Art in New Mexico October 16, 2015 – January 3, 2016

As one of America's most iconic artists of the 20th century, Georgia O'Keeffe's name recognition and popularity continues to endure and grow. The exhibition's theme is focused on the still-life and, in addition to O'Keeffe's work, will feature other important contemporaries including Marsden Hartley, Joseph Henry Sharp and Andrew Dasburg. The works are drawn from major museums and private collections across the country. This exhibition will be the final stop on a four city tour and the only Texas venue.

Georgia O'Keeffe (1887-1986)
Gerald's Tree II, 1937
40 x 30 1/8 in. Oil on canvas
Stark Museum, Orange, Texas
© Copyright 2015 Georgia O'Keeffe Museum
Courtesy International Arts ®